they [illegible] from you

in to the matter of your [illegible]

[illegible] of you [illegible]

to ~~[illegible]~~ language whose [illegible]

they were taught intended to be a great [illegible] to them

Wherefore to me be [illegible]

of one charge together [illegible]

help [illegible] [illegible]

[illegible] the [illegible] of the

Nathl

Any information you can give them
as to the working of your institutions & especially of your Schools, in which
as zealous educationalists
they are deeply interested will be a great favour to them and therefore to me. We often think of our days together at Trinity-Lodge & wonder if we shall meet again & on which side of the sea.

Yours Sincerely
J Nichol.

From Prof. John Nichol.

Schwalbach
Nassau July 18./70.

Dear Mr Garrison,

Allow me to introduce to you two highly esteemed friends of mine who propose making a short tour in your country, Professor James Bryce & Mr Albert Dicey. They were both among the most distinguished students & scholars of their time at Oxford, have been for some years prominent writers & speakers always on the side of truth justice and freedom & give sure promise if their lives last to become eminent men